NOTES ON SUBMISSION OF PHYSICAL ENTRIES

Entries must be submitted in a secure portfolio, preferably one that zips or poppers closed. Work not submitted in a portfolio cannot be accepted and will be returned to the entrant.

Entrants may submit more than one entry, but each entry must be in a separate portfolio. Any portfolio which contains more than one entry will not be considered.

Each portfolio must be clearly labelled with this entry form attached to the front. The entrant's name and address and the name of the entrant's college and a contact telephone number must be clear, along with the entrant's email address and telephone number. The entry form must be countersigned by the entrant's college tutor, lecturer or course leader.

Every piece of artwork in the portfolio must be individually labelled on the back with the entrant's name and college.

Entries, clearly marked 'The Macmillan Prize', should be sent or delivered during normal office hours (9.30am to 5.30pm, excluding lunch 12:00pm-1:30pm), to:
Macmillan Children's Books, 20 New Wharf Road, London, N1 9RR or submitted digitally via: www.panmacmillan.com/macmillanprize up until 5:30pm on Thursday 25th April 2019.

Tutors are strongly encouraged to collect all portfolios from their students and have them delivered as a group submission from the university.

Information on submitting work digitally can be found by going to www.panmacmillan.com/macmillanprize. If shortlisted, the entrant will need to supply the original artwork or high-quality print-outs suitable for exhibition before Friday 17th May 2019.
